

Ridhi Bajaj Brought Laurels to Maharaja Agrasen University In 69th IPC

Ms. Ridhi Bajaj, Asst. Professor in the School of Pharmacy, Maharaja Agrasen University received “Best Oral Presentation Award” for her research paper entitled, “Genetic Screening of Y Chromosome and X Chromosome (Tex 13B) Microdeletions in Indian Infertile Men” in the 69th Indian Pharmaceutical Congress, which is the country’s most prestigious mega conference of Pharmacy profession organized between December 22-24, 2017 at Chitkara University, Rajpura. More than 10,000 delegates participated in various deliberations of this mega conference from industry, academia and hospitals, comprising more than 8000 student delegates. In the scientific session, more than 1200 research papers were selected for presentation, out of which Ms. Ridhi Bajaj bagged the “Best Research paper” award in oral presentation session and awarded with a cash prize of Rs. 30,000/- along with a citation and memento. Dr. N.K Garg, Hon’ble Chancellor; Prof. R.K. Gupta, Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, Shri Suresh Gupta, Project In-charge, Dr. Deepak P Bhagwat, Prof. and Director, School of Pharmacy, Maharaja Agrasen University congratulated Ms. Ridhi Bajaj for bringing name and fame to the University for receiving the best paper award among more than 1200 presentations.

In this conference 40 students served as volunteers in various committees of the conference and Dr. Deepak P. Bhagwat, as Chairman of the Sightseeing Committee along with 12 faculty members who presented their research work in poster session.