

Maharaja Agrasen University

Atal Shiksha Kunj, Village Kalujhanda,
Near Barotiwala-174103

4.1 Physical Facilities

(Total Covered Area = 12.695 acres, Total Build up Area = 70873 sq. mt)

The University has excellent infrastructural facilities/learning resources as per the curriculum requirements and norms of statutory/regulatory bodies. The University campus consists of six schools. Every school is equipped with its own high-tech computing resources internet and Wi-Fi connectivity. The University has four air-conditioned Seminar Halls which are fully equipped with computers, projector screens microphones and Wi-Fi internet connectivity. Where seminars, ICT workshops and special lectures are conducted

All schools of the University have well-furnished adequate number of air conditioned class rooms and tutorial rooms for effective delivery of lectures and tutorials.

All laboratories of the University are well equipped with high-tech equipment's and latest specialized software as per AICTE and UGC norms, to perform the curriculum-oriented practical's and minor/major projects. In addition to regular curriculum students are motivated to carry out research activities as per their area of interest.

The University has well equipped English Language Lab with LCD Projector facility, computers, and relevant software installed on 25 computers. These indeed make students to read, listen and speak English in a better way, which help them to prepare for group discussion, debates and interviews.

To facilitate the learning University has a Central Library which is equipped with all kinds of text books, references books, magazines and reputed National and International Journals. In addition to this some of the schools of University have their independent departmental libraries, where the seminar reports, thesis, reference books and text books related to various subjects are kept for the benefits of faculty and students.

The University has a dedicated team for the maintenance of computer systems, software and network related issues. The University has an ERP facility which is accessible any time any place, to automate the attendance system, and provides a proper communication between students, faculty and University Administration.

The University consists of two boys hostel with a total capacity of 511 boys and a girl's hostel with a total capacity of 199 girls. The University is also equipped with 2 lifts, one in the administration block and other in the C block for the facilitation of staff and students. Apart from this the university also consists of 2 ramps expanded in total area of 843 square meter and 3 wheelchairs for the convenience of physically handicapped students.

At the end of every academic session the members of the University management, Vice Chancellor, Directors and the Head of the department assess the need of infrastructure for availing the sufficient facilities for teaching in the forthcoming session.